Climbers Gain on Sox; Split Even with Tigers

Nationals Lose Opening Game, but Take Second Battle While Naps Trim Sox-Johnson Beats George Mullin.

By WILLIAM PERT.

Just like getaway day at the races was the pastiming at the Florida Avenue hall yard yesterday. It was full of surprises, and the unex-pected happened in almost every inning. The counts were 5-4 Tigers, and 7-5, Gleamers.

In the curtain raiser our brave boys played a really excellent game of ping pong just long enough for the hungry Tigers to eat five tallies; after that there was nothing to it. M'sieu Dubuc, from the trackless Northwest, looked a sorry performer for an inning or two, but after he had contributed a few tallies to the Gleamers, he developed a stingy streak. Sacre bleu! Ain't it?

Leading Citizen Clyde Milan contributed a fumble and a wild heave to the festivities in the third inning, Long Tom Hughes momentarily faltered, and the Tigers made their winning right there, as Jim Vaughn was called into the battle and was?

The second game was a jewel in spots, though our fat triend George Mullin was a trife too deliberate at times and had the crowd after him, but George only grinned—and stalled.

During some ground and lotty tumbling in the fifth inning, Ray Morgan and Chick Gandli running wild on the bases, the latter spiked the fat man, and our old friend Raiph Works was crotted into the arena.

Enduring the meles, in the fifth inning, that popular citizen of Georgia, Maney Tyrus Rambunctious Cobb, was scuesed from further lessons during the day.

Ryan Ordered to Bushes To Hunt Young Pitchers

Veteran Backstop Leaves for Richmond to Look Over Ayers-Will Then Visit Other Points to Corral Youngsters.

Manager Griffith is not overlooking any bets in regards to the signing of pitchers. Yesterday morning he ordered Jack Ryan, the veteran backstop who has been coaching the young twirlers on Griff's pay roll, to the bushes, with instructions to look over any kid who looks like he could throw a curve ball.

Jack Ryan left yesterday and looked Ayers, of the Richmond club, over. Ryan will don a uniform, and with his mitt will catch the pitcher who has attracted his eye. In this way Manager Griffith figures that he will know right off the reel whether the lad warrants a trial in the hig show.

Ryan will be on the road while the Nationals are in the West, and Manager Griffith expects to have three or four youngsters at the ball yard when the team returns

Trip Tells Tale.

The trip of the Climbers around the Western wheel of the circuit will tend to show whether the boys are able to stand the gaff or not. Many critics claim that the club will not hold on to second place during the present trip, but Manager Griffith figures differently, and claims that his aggregation is likely to return home in first place, instead of in second. It is taken into consideration that the Climbers made their sensational dash to the front on the read, and that they lave played better hall on foreign diamonds. Griff may be tight.

The Red Sox are bound to siump some time, according to all the baseball dope, and it may be that the Boaton crew will pick out this Western trip as the time. Griff is figuring that the Beaneaters will hit the tobeggan for a little while, and plans to have his outfer ready to jump into the lead. If the Climbers were reach the top, it will take some mighty good ball playing to dump them.

The Nationals have a fighting chance for the bunting, and Griffint dees not intend to take any chances with his team. Two double-headers will be played in succession Saturday and Sunday with the Cleveland Nays. Harry Davis plans to try out a few recruits in these games, and should this prove to be the case, the Climbers expect to take all four. To win three out of the quartet of battles would be going at a fest clip, and this Manager Griffith is confident of doing.
